

LOYALTY

We're loyal to you, Maroa High
 We're golden and blue, Maroa High We'll back you to stand Against the best in the land
 For we know you have sand
 Maroa High Rah! Rah!
 So smash that blockade, Maroa High
 Go crashing ahead, Maroa High
 Our team is our famed protector
 On boys, for we expect a victory
 From you MAROA HIGH

Hang out that dear old flag of golden and blue
 Lead on your sons and daughters fighting for you Like men of old on giants, placing reliance, shouting defiance
 O sky Wow Wow!
 Amid the broad green plains that nourish our land
 For honest labor and for learning
 we stand
 And unto you we pledge our heart and hand
 Dear Alma Mater M.H.S.

Our Blue & Gold Boys

And when those Blue and Gold Boys fall in line
 We're gonna have another awful time
 We yell for all the boys in uni-
 No matter if the Game we've lost or won
 We yell, we yell for M.H.S. for-overmore
 And for the standards that we're fighting for We're gonna roll old (opponent)
 the map, we'll tell
 For M.H.S.

MY HERO

He told her of his prowess
 And his skill upon the field;
 Now to his vigor and speed
 The other team did yield.

He told her of the mighty runs
 He made to save his men,
 Now against the onrush of the foe
 The team he did defend.

Viva decided that she'd come to see him in the fray,
 To see him make a dazzling run
 And be the hero of the day.

And then he dashed across the field

But tears did dim her joy,
 For here of the mighty runs
 Was John Roy, the WATER BOY.

BELIEVE IT OR NOT

That Glenn Query has a number of passengers this year.
 That Mary Wendling likes to dri-
 the dark after wienor roasts.
 are of a dark-complexioned man.
 That Paul Gregory has a new attraction. Back to blondes.

That Bob L. has returned to his old seat in English Class.
 That black curly-headed boys are Margaret Thompson's weakness.

Rosalie Perry is interested in filling stations.

Several freshmen stand on tiptoes before the new fountain.

That that red sweater is Roi
 Jeane's handiwork.

Alice H. is weakening under the dulness of study halls.

That Mr. Boll is completing his professional dignity with glasses.

Several four page themes were written for gym class.

Mr. Keyes: "What are you going to do tonight?"

Mrs. Keyes: "Oh, read, listen to the radio, and so on."

Mr. Keyes: "And while you're sewing on, don't forget my shirt buttons."

Father: "It's a good plan, my dear, always to think before you speak." Ruth Milnes: "But, Dad, when I do that, the girls have changed the subject."

Miss Flugum: "What is a comet?"
 Gene Neal: "A star with a tail."
 Miss Flugum: "Good, Name one."
 Gene Neal: "Mickoy Mouse".

Harold J.: "Bill, what make of car do you call yours?"
 Bill H.: "Well, the old R.F.D. type."
 Harold: "What is that?"
 Bill: "Rescued from the dumps".

Miss Grabb: "Form a sentence with the word heroes."
 Mary Pinney: "Milford sat on a tack and he rose."
